

Worries? Problems? Complaints?

People you can talk to:

- The Headmaster Mr Last
- Deputy Head (Pastoral) Mr Dickinson
- Deputy Head (Academic) Dr Ley
- School Chaplain Miss Timms
- Boarding House Parents
- Your Tutor
- Your Head of Year
- Matron and the doctors who visit the medical centre
- Any member of staff of your choice ...
and of course...
- Your own parents, guardians or family

You may phone:

- Youth Affairs Officer, County Police 08452 777444
- Childline – FREE 0800 1111
- Independent Schools Inspectorate (ISI) 02076 000100
- Rev Andrew Vidamour (Independent Listener) (01237 478453)

Remember:

There are people at Kingsley School who are willing and ready to listen to you.

There are independent people outside school who can help you.

You can raise your concern anonymously through Whisper (see posters).

If you want to make a formal complaint, you have the right to do so.

You can have a friend or teacher with you and you will not be “in trouble” for making a complaint.

You do not need to tell staff or anyone else that you are complaining about them.